Lighting the Christ Candle

There was a man named Jesus, who brought healing and new life to all whom he met. And he said “I am the light of the World”.

Acknowledgement of the Land

As we begin our worship, we acknowledge the history, spirituality and cultures of the First Nations who are the traditional custodians of the land where each of us is gathered today. Their relationship with the land remains central to their lives.

God of new life, ground us in love and justice so we can work toward reconciliation and fulfill our treaty obligations with Canada’s First Nations peoples. Amen.

Collect

God of Easter

It is you who opens our eyes
to see your love.

It is you who opens our minds
to welcome your word

It is you who opens our mouths
to be your witness.

Show us your hands,
so we may reach out
to mend the broken;
Show us your feet,

so we may walk with
those the world passes by;
Show us your face,
so we may know what
our sisters and brothers look like.
We pray this in the name of the risen one. Amen

Opening Hymn: Alleluia Alleluia

We Gather Around God's Word

One: Whether you take what is written in the Bible as fact, metaphor, myth or story, listen now to these words for the meaning they hold in your lives today.

All: May the Spirit bless us with wisdom and wonder, as we ponder the meaning of these words in our lives.

Psalm 4

Reader: Shirley Baster

Answer me when I call, God of my justice!
Give me relief from my distress!

Have mercy!
Hear my prayer! How long will you people dishonor me before God?
How long will you love delusion and pursue lies?

Know that those who love YHWH
have been set apart by divine will—YHWH will hear me when I call!
Tremble, and stop your sinning;
search your heart, alone and silent in your room.

Offer sacrifices of justice,
and put your trust in YHWH.

So many are asking,
“Does good even exist anymore?”
Let the light of your face, YHWH, shine on us!

You put joy in my heart—

a joy greater than being full
of bread and new wine.

In peace I'll lie down;
in peace I will sleep:
for you alone, YHWH,
keep me perfectly safe.

Luke 24: 36b-48

Reader: Shirley Baster

Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." ³⁷They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? ³⁹Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." ⁴⁰And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" ⁴²They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³and he took it and ate in their presence. ⁴⁴Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled." ⁴⁵Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, ⁴⁶and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things.

Invitation to the Offering

Offering Prayer

Generous God,
through your Son, Jesus Christ,
you have shown us what it means to love.
And you call us to follow Your example—
to love our neighbours as we love ourselves.

Continue to write your law of love on our hearts.
Give us an unwavering passion for justice,
and a tenacious faith that will not rest
until the hungry are fed,
the oppressed find relief,
and the outsider finds a welcome. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Risen Lord, hear our cry for help –
for those surrounded by the shroud of death
for those covered by the mantle of dying
for those hemmed-in by illness, visible or veiled
hear our cry for help...
for those weighed down with worries
for those carrying the burden of distress
for those overwhelmed by isolation
hear our cry for help...

for those who are weary
for those who are tattered and worn
for those who collapse from exhaustion
hear our cry for help...

Risen Lord, hear our cry of thanksgiving –
for the graciousness with which you hear for the patience with which you listen
for the grace with which you care
hear our cry of thanksgiving...

for the ways you accompany us through deep valleys
for the ways you lead us to still meadows
for the ways you provide all we need
hear our cry of thanksgiving...

for transforming death in resurrection life
for blessing and breaking ordinary bread for opening our eyes to recognize you
hear our cry of thanksgiving...

Risen Lord, hear our cry for communities of faith –
that we retain memory of being together
that we embrace unity in the reality of distance that we foresee a future side-by-side, hand-in-hand hear our cry for communities of faith...

At this time, we remember all who have asked us for our prayers:

(Intercessions are now offered)

In the hope of new life in Christ, we offer our prayers to you, O God, trusting in your never-ending goodness and mercy. With confidence, we pray with the words that Jesus taught us:

God our Mother and Father in Heaven, hallowed be thy name ...

Closing Song: All the Way My Saviour Leads Me

VU 635

Blessing:

Let us go forth as witnesses
to the power and presence of the Risen Christ in our world.

May God journey with you
through brokenness to wholeness,
through fear to faith,
through sorrow to joy,
through death to life.

May the blessing of God,
Creator, Christ and Holy Spirit
Be with you now and always.
From fear to faith,
And fill us with a spirit of joy.
Amen.
