A special welcome to the members of Asbury and West United Church this Sunday!

We Gather to in Joyful Celebration

Lighting the Christ Candle

There was a man named Jesus, who embodied God's love and compassion in such surprising ways. And he said: I am the light of the world

Acknowledgement of the Land

As we begin our worship, we acknowledge the history, spirituality and cultures of the First Nations who are the traditional custodians of the land where each of us is gathered today. Their relationship with the land remains central to their lives.

God of new life, ground us in love and justice so we can work toward reconciliation and fulfill our treaty obligations with the First Peoples of this land. Amen.

A Call to Worship for World Communion Sunday

Leader: Today we gather around God's table from near and far

People: We are the People of God!

Leader: Though we differ in language, culture, and tradition

People: We are siblings in Christ!

Leader: For there is one Lord, one faith, and one baptism

People: We are One in God's Spirit!

Leader: We are one as followers of our brother Jesus

People: And together we are members of the one body of Christ.

Leader: He gave himself up for us, so we could be reconciled to God.

People: Come, let us worship the God of our Salvation!

Prayer of the Day

God of sea and sky,

of rock and tree and creature—

Creation is filled with your wonder!

Bless us with the knowledge

in our bodies, our hearts, and our minds,

that you are with us in this moment,

and in every moment.

Bless us as we gather around your word and share the body of Christ – the bread of the earth - which makes us one with each other

one with creation,

and one with you;

through Christ, our bread of life. Amen.

We Open our Hearts to the Spirit's Voice

One: Whether you take what is written in the Bible as fact, metaphor, myth or story, listen now to these words for the meaning they hold in your lives today.

All: May the Spirit bless us with wisdom and wonder, as we ponder the meaning of these words in our lives.

1 Corinthians 11:23-32

²³For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, ²⁴and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." ²⁵In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." ²⁶For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. ²⁷Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be answerable for the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸Examine yourselves, and only then eat of the bread and drink of the cup. ²⁹For all who eat and drink without discerning the body, eat and drink judgment against themselves. ³⁰For this reason many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. ³¹But if we judged ourselves, we would not be judged. ³²But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. ³³So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. ³⁴If you are hungry, eat at home, so that when you come together, it will not be for your condemnation. About the other things I will give instructions when I come.

Holy Wisdom, Holy Word. Thanks be to God.

Ministry of Music: Christ, Whose Glory Fills The Skies (Charles Wesley) Fairbank United Choir

Acts 2:42-47

⁴²They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. ⁴³Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. ⁴⁴All who believed were together and had all things in common; ⁴⁵they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. ⁴⁶Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, ⁴⁷praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Holy Wisdom, Holy Word. Thanks be to God.

Prayers for the People

United in Christ who gathers us into one, let us offer our prayers to God:

For the Church, the Body of Christ,
that we might truly live the unity we receive through the Holy Spirit.
God who makes us one, hear our prayer.

For the leaders of our churches that they may be faithful to the unity to which all Christians are called.

God who makes us one, hear our prayer.

For the nations of the world,
that they may live in peace with one another and promote justice for all.
God who makes us one, hear our prayer.

For all people, that we may be loving stewards of creation,
and act with commitment to preserve our earth home.
God who makes us one, hear our prayer.

For the sick and suffering,
that they may know your healing presence.
God who makes us one, hear our prayer.

For nations throughout our world who are struggling;
especially the people of Cuba, Afghanistan, and nations struggling during the COVID pandemic.
God who makes us one, hear our prayer.

For all who have asked for our prayers; we remember them now:

Intercessions are offered

Risen Christ, you hear our prayers, and you make us one with each other, and one with the web of creation, through your love. Amen.

Invitation to the Offering

Prayer of Dedication for the Gifts

Loving God, you bring forth food from the earth and nourish your whole creation.

Turn our hearts toward those who hunger in any way, that all may know your care;
and prepare us now to feast on the bread of life, Christ, our Saviour. Amen.

“Gifts of the Land”

World Communion Sunday

May God be with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts!

We lift them up to the Creator of Life!

Let us give thanks to our God

Our hearts sing out in joyful song!

Blessed are you, O Holy One,

For in the beginning of creation the dry land rose from the waters,

Trees towered, flowers blossomed

And plants and vegetation emerged from the soils.

And so with the autumn breezes,

and the waving grasses of the fields,

We join in the joyful song of all creation: (VU # 951, Santo, Santo, Santo)

Holy, holy, holy, my heart, my heart adores you!

My heart is glad to say the words: You are holy God!

Blessed is our brother Jesus who preached good news to the poor of the land.

Even though we have polluted the land and exploited earth's resources

Creation keeps blessing us with its gifts,

Calling us to care for the earth and its people.

Today, at tables across many lands

Bread and wine are being offered and shared at Jesus' table of hope:

... Rice bread, Coconut bread, Injera, Bannock, sweet buns, pita bread, Rye bread, and Arabic flat bread.

Blessed is our brother Jesus, who on the night he was betrayed, shared a meal with his friends, took bread ...

Send now your Life-giving Spirit upon us and these gifts of bread and cup

May there be healing and justice for the people of the land;

May there be hope and renewal for our beloved earth.

Gathering our prayers into one, we pray with confidence: "Our Father..."

At the breaking of the bread:

Holy things for holy people! Thanks be to God! Amen!

Post-Communion Prayer

Nourishing God, may we go forth from this table with hope and with joy,
as a renewed community-
called to touch people's lives with the love and compassion of Jesus. Amen!

Closing Hymn: VU 646 We are Marching in the Light of God

South African

Blessing and Commissioning

We have gathered around God's word, and listened for the Spirit's voice.

We have gathered around Jesus' table,
where we are one with the global body of Christ throughout the world,
feasting at God's table of grace.

And as we go forth,
may the blessing of God who created the wildflowers,
Jesus, who walks beside us,
and the Spirit who fills us with passion for justice
be with us now and always. Amen!
